

FALL COLOR

10 Unique Shrubs for Fall Color (Zone: 3 – 7)

Kate Karam | October 3, 2017

Share Post f t p ✉ PDF

And suddenly, it's fall!

Though days are shorter, nights are cooler and most of the flowering shrubs are done, the rewards that come from a bonfire of fiery fall foliage makes it a season to get out enjoy those last days in the garden.

There are many shrubs that provide fall color. We wanted to share a few favorites, each with something special to offer. Now, as you're wrapping up fall planting, is the time to slip in a few shrubs which look great in spring and summer, but provide a really special autumn moment.

(As zones often overlap, check out this companion post for even more options.)

Grace Smoke Tree

You loved it dressed in rich purple all summer, but when cooler fall nights come on...wow! Look at that fiery color. Performs even in rocky, infertile soils! Partial to full sun. Up to 15 ft. tall and wide. Zone: 4 – 8

Gro-Low Fragrant Sumac

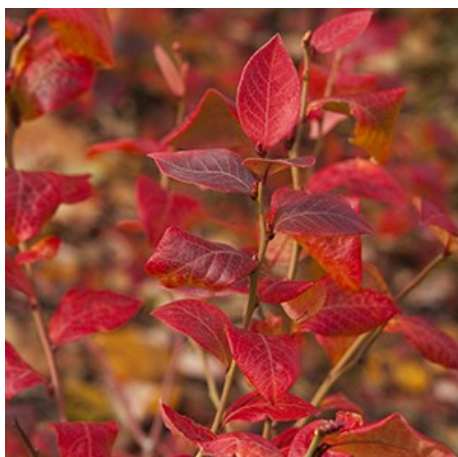

Goldflame Spirea

Brilliant Red Chokeberry

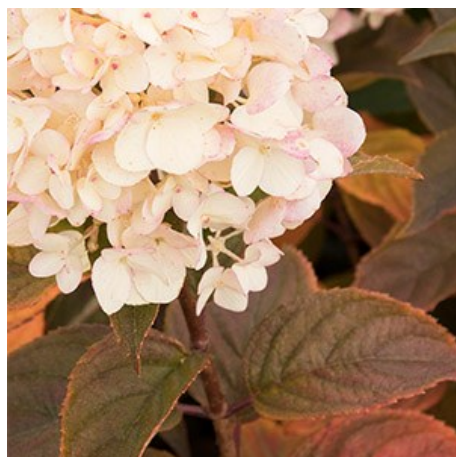

Zone: 4 – 9

Spectacular and hardy with red, fragrant fall foliage. Use to front a border or as a durable groundcover. Partial to full sun. Up to 3 ft. tall and 8 ft. wide.

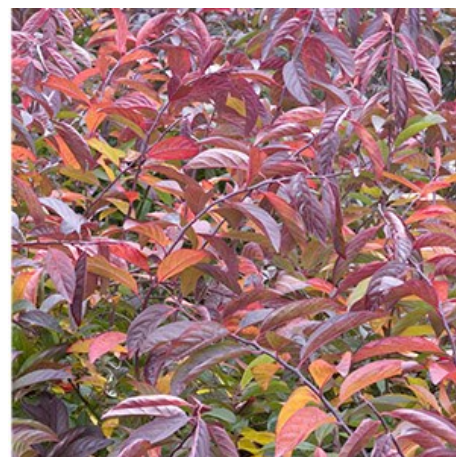

Zone: 4 – 9

Chartreuse foliage turns to a brilliant coppery orange in the fall (not to mention rosy red summer flowers!) Partial to full sun. Up to 4 ft. tall and wide.

Zone: 4 – 9

Improved, compact selection with white spring flowers followed by abundant glossy red fruit and brilliant red fall foliage. Partial shade to full sun. 8 ft. tall and wide.

Northland Midseason Blueberry
Zone: 3 – 7

Anyone want a tall, dense, flowering and fruiting hedge that bursts into flaming hues in fall? Plant in mass for three seasons of thrills. Full sun. Up to 6 ft. tall and wide.

Candy Apple™ Hydrangea
Zone: 4 – 8

After dazzling all summer, celebrates fall with foliage turning purple-red and blooms that dry to warm, soft pink. Partial shade to full sun. Up to 5 ft. tall and 4 ft. wide.

Henry's Garnet Sweetspire
Zone: 5 – 9

Eastern native that turns up the volume with brilliant red-purple fall foliage color that lasts into winter. Partial shade to full sun. Up to 6 ft. tall and wide.

Korean Spice Viburnum
Zone: 4 – 8

Plant where you can enjoy both the fragrant spring flowers and rich burgundy fall foliage. Birds love the black berries. Partial to full sun. Up to 6 ft. tall and wide.

Fine Line® Fern Leaf Buckthorn
Zone: 2 – 7

Narrow, columnar habit is fantastic for adding shape to the garden. Foliage turns yellow in fall. Non-invasive cultivar. Partial to full sun. Up to 7 ft. tall and 3 ft. wide.

Dwarf Fothergilla
Zone: 5 – 9

Lovely in 3 seasons, plant this native in woodland or shade gardens or in shrub borders that need a color boost in fall. Partial to full sun. Up to 4 ft. tall and wide.

◀ PREV: HOW TO SELECT THE RIGHT JAPANESE MAPLE

NEXT: 5 WAYS TO USE DOGWOODS ▶

Leave a Comment

LOGIN/REGISTER

Monrovia reserves the right to remove comments deemed offensive, vulgar or inappropriate at any time without explanation.

Your email address will not be published. Required fields are marked *

* Name

* Email

POST COMMENT

Show 1 comment(s)

Suggested Posts

Putting Container Planted Berries to Bed

If Instagram feeds are any indicator, many of us went all in this year on the new raspberry, blueberry, and blackberry plants bred for containers. Compact and easy care, they ...

Kate Karam | November 13, 2017

Top Conifers for Year Round Beauty (Zone: 7 – 10)

When all the thrilling flowers, fruits, berries, foliage have faded, suddenly you notice the conifers that are all around you. Those evergreen backbones that others thought about ahead, and planted. ...

Kate Karam | October 31, 2017

Cotoneasters Bring Winter Color to Colder Zones

The little shrub that could, cotoneasters are fuss-free, berry-making machines that tolerate cold, drought once plant is established, winds, road salt, and salt spray, and can be put to great ...

Kate Karam | October 31, 2017

Sign up for our newsletter

Connect with us

